The Sheriff's Foundation of York County Inc. is seeking support from local businesses

YORK COUNTY, SC - Sheriff Bruce Bryant and the directors of the Sheriff's Foundation of York County Inc. are excited to announce a new Foundation fund raising initiative. Beginning Tuesday May 26th, 2015, the company, Law Enforcement Publications, will be contacting York County business owners to give them an opportunity to purchase advertising that will be placed on a calendar for the year 2016. The proceeds from the advertisements that the Foundation receives will supplement funds earned from the annual Foundation golf tournament and will be used to further the Foundation's charitable purposes.

Thus far, proceeds raised from all Sheriff's Foundation initiatives have allowed the Foundation to give $49,000 in scholarship money to York County students. An additional $9,000 has been used to purchase back packs and school supplies for York County students in need. Money raised will also benefit school Safety Patrol programs, will fund the Foundation's annual Law Enforcement Day at The Children's Attention Home and provides financial support for Boy Scout Explorer Post 1786.

Law Enforcement Publications is based out of Morristown, Tennessee. Citizens can learn more about LEP Calendars via this website link. <https://lepcalendars.com/>

Sheriff Bryant has provided Law Enforcement Publications with a letter that will be provided to business owners so that they can participate with confidence that the Sheriff and the Sheriff's Foundation of York County have authorized the publication of this calendar.
